

$1,200.00
ROBERT L. NEGRI
MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP

The California Transportation Foundation (CTF), a nonprofit organization, announces four (4) $1200.00 scholarships: The 2007 Robert L. Negri Memorial Scholarships. Applicants must be college/university undergraduate majoring in Human Resources, Labor Studies, Public Sector Administration, or Business Administration. Current student assistants, volunteers, employees and sons and daughters of Caltrans employees are eligible. Each one of the four scholarships will be competitive based upon the student's career goals, academic records and extra curricular activities. Financial need may be considered, but is not a primary factor.

Applicants must meet the following general criteria:

1. Must provide an official transcript showing an overall grade point average of 3.0 or better
2. Must provide proof of current enrollment.
3. Must include a personal statement (not more than 500 words) about current studies or activities relating to career field or academic goals after graduation, and why they should receive the scholarship.
4. Must provide a letter of recommendation from either a professor or current employer.

The Robert L. Negri Memorial Scholarship is awarded by the California Transportation Foundation in honor of Robert L. Negri, a former Chief of the Caltrans' Division of Personnel Management. The Robert L. Negri Memorial Scholarship funds are administered by CTF, a nonprofit organization established in 1988 to "Promote and Recognize Excellence in California Transportation." It is a 501 (c) charitable organization with tax-exempt status. The Federal EIN # is 68-01625257.
